

RULE 204. CANCELLATION OF APPLICATIONS

Adopted: 09/05/74

An authority to construct shall expire and the application shall be cancelled two years from the date of issuance of the authority to construct; provided, however, that when a period of longer than two years is stated in the application to be required for the construction, the authority to construct shall expire and the application shall be cancelled upon the expiration of the stated construction period, but in any event not later than five years from the date of issuance of the authority to construct.
